PERFORMANCE SEASON

The 2015-2016 performance season of the Grossmont Symphony Orchestra & Master Chorale continues with a special choral/orchestral project in honor of the 260th anniversary of the birth of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. The concert opens with his operatic overture to Don Giovanni and ends with a performance of his Requiem—a bookending of works that share a common theme: the first recognizing a man's judgement by God for his many sins, and the last asking God for entrance of one's soul to Heaven. The program is contrasted with a piece of chamber music that the composer wrote for flute and string trio: Mozart's Flute Quartet in A Major, K. 298 as performed by GSO principal flautist, Kay Van Tassell, and members of the Grossmont Symphony String Quartet.

THE GROSSMONT
SYMPHONY
ORCHESTRA
AND MASTER
CHORALE

The performance of Mozart's Requiem will feature four professional soloists to include: Audra Nagby, soprano—music faculty member on faculty at Grossmont College; Sarah-Nicole Ruddy-Carter, mezzo-soprano—and graduate of the music program at Grossmont College; Alvin Almazan, tenor; and Michael Sokol, baritone.

Three exciting and accessible works performed in the resonant acoustics of two venues:

Randall Tweed, D.M.A., Music Director, has been conducting opera, symphony, and chorus throughout Southern and Baja California since joining the music faculty in 1986. Dr. Tweed has frequently appeared as guest conductor on concert music series throughout Southern California including the Cabrillo Chamber Orchestra, San Diego Ballet, Jean Isaacs San Diego Dance Theatre, United States International Orchestra, Spreckels Organ Society, and various church music concert series. In the area of education Dr. Tweed has appeared as adjudicator for the California Music Teachers Association, the Music Educator's National Conference and has twice appeared as conductor for the Suzuki awards concerts.

Dr. Tweed's performing experience is both in the areas of vocal and instrumental fields winning competitions sponsored by the La Jolla Civic University Orchestra and the Musical Merit Foundation of Greater San Diego. Dr. Tweed earned the Doctorate in Musical Arts (D.M.A.) from the School of Music at Arizona State University, located in Tempe, Arizona. He has also completed two Master of Music degrees from the University of Southern California in addition to pursuing post-graduate study in Berlin, Germany (studying at the Berliner Kirchenmusikschule) where he was a recipient of a Konrad Adenauer Foundation Fellowship.

The Grossmont Symphony Orchestra (GSO), and Master Chorale (GMC), are East County's answer to quality classical music performances. Under the musical direction of Randall Tweed, the seventy-five member orchestral and fifty member choral ensembles are comprised of music and non-music majors, music teachers, and talented musicians from the community.

The 2015-2016 performance season of the Grossmont Symphony Orchestra & Master Chorale continues its musical tradition of providing high quality art and entertainment to its East County audience by performing a wide variety of classical music and musical styles. Music . . . to enlighten the senses is the theme of the new season. And like the Phoenix, the new performance season represents a reawakening of the senses in the programming of major works, many of them performed via multimedia presentation. With the anticipated groundbreaking of our new concert hall, the orchestra & chorale continues its tradition of sharing our East County Arts throughout our magnificent county. All performances are creatively varied—performances the entire family can afford: Adults $10, Students $5. Encompassing orchestral, choral, chamber music and our String Outreach Program, Grossmont is performing near you!

For more information on these performances, please call the Grossmont College Music Department at: (619) 644-7254.
